Why Memorialize?

Our memorials provide a permanent and respectful place for those left behind to visit and connect emotionally and spiritually with their lost loved one. It also provides a genealogical bridge for future generations to honor and pay tribute to the deceased. There is no finer or worthier way to remember those whom you loved and respected.

We understand how difficult selecting a monument can be.

There is so much to consider, from cemetery regulations - to color, size, design, and inscription. As the tri-state's oldest and largest business of its kind, Sears Monument Company has the knowledge and experience to help. Visit our showroom with over 2,000 memorials in stock. Our free design service allows you to personalize your perfect memorial.

We believe memorials should be personalized, giving real meaning and an honorable tribute to a loved one.

We can design a special memorial for you or your loved one. Let us help you design your custom memorial by using your ideas to determine the color, size, shape and lettering style. For example, hunting, fishing, farming, sports scenes and emblems of special organizations.

About Us

Sears Monument Company was established in 1911 and is West Virginia's oldest and largest supplier of memorials and monuments. We produce and install monuments in West Virginia, southeastern Ohio and eastern Kentucky.

We offer a complete line of monuments, with over 2,000 memorials in stock. Select from flat markers, single and double upright memorials, single and companion flat bronze memorials, children memorials, benches, cremation memorials and urns, mausoleums, bronze plaques, granite signs, military monuments, and uniquely shaped memorials. Contact one of our sales professionals to design something personal and unique.

We are a member of the American Institute Of Commemorative Art (AICA), an association of retail monument companies and consultants who specialize in memorial design. As well as a member of the Monument Builders of North America (MBNA), a trade association that is over 100 years old, whose members are dedicated to providing an honest and ethical service, while being committed to the craftsmanship of the industry.

Sears Monument Company has served over 150,000 families since being in business. Having established a reputation for creative memorialization, exceptional workmanship, with guaranteed satisfaction, Sears Monument pledges to all West Virginia families for generations to come, proper memorialization for their loved ones.
